

Contents

Introduction

- 1 Who are young carers?
- 2 Young carers and their education
- 3 National legislation and guidance
- 4 Barriers to learning faced by young carers
  - 4.1 Barriers to learning and possible solutions
- 5 Attendance
- 6 Behaviour
- 7 Addressing bullying
- 8 Transport to and from school
- 9 A model for setting up a framework of support
- 10 How can school governors help?
  - 10.1 A checklist for governors
- 11 School leadership teams
  - 11.1 Checklist for school leadership teams
  - 11.2 Case studies: schools
  - 11.3 Young carers: snapshots of challenges faced and solutions, and positive methods of working
- 12 Developing a school policy for young carers and their families
  - 12.1 School policy checklist
- 13 Developing a school lead for young carers and their families
- 14 Staff training and awareness
  - 14.1 Young carers' top ten tips for schools
- 15 Who else can help?
- 16 Working with young carers: a model
- 17 Early intervention and preventative work
- 18 Identification of young carers
  - 18.1 Possible indicators of a young carer
- 19 Pupils with parents affected by substance misuse
- 20 Pupils with parents with mental ill-health
  - 20.1 Information on mental health for young carers
- 21 Pupils caring for someone with a learning disability
- 22 Pupils caring for a sibling
- 23 Pupils from migrant families

- 24 Assessment and monitoring
  - 24.1 Barriers to learning: a checklist to use with pupils
  - 24.2 Young carers support options
  - 24.3 Family support: a questionnaire
- 25 Safeguarding
- 26 Supporting learning: a personalised approach to education and support
  - 26.1 A young carer card
- 27 Crises and emergency plans
- 28 Support for the whole family: signposting, referrals and partnership work
- 29 Access, support and involving parents with disabilities
- 30 Working in partnership with young carers' services
  - 30.1 Effective partnership with young carers' services: a checklist
  - 30.2 An example of work in a school by a young carers' service
- 31 Transition from primary to secondary school
- 32 Higher and further education
- 33 Raising awareness amongst all pupils
  - 33.1 Lesson and assembly planning
  - 33.2 Young carers' stories
  - 33.3 Building your library
  - 33.4 Sample role-play for an assembly, drama, PSHCE or SEAL lesson
  - 33.5 Young carers give top tips for their peers
- 34 Information for young carers and parents
  - 34.1 How our school supports young carers: a template
  - 34.2 Information and contacts for young carers: a template
  - 34.3 Information and contacts for parents: a template

Further reading

Acknowledgements

Additional resources